Release No. 88712 / April 21, 2020

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, of trading in the securities of SCWorx Corp. (“SCWorx”) (CIK 0001674227), of New York, NY at 9:30 a.m. EDT on April 22, 2020, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on May 5, 2020.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of SCWorx because of questions and concerns regarding the adequacy and accuracy of publicly available information in the marketplace concerning SCWorx including (1) press releases and other publicly disseminated statements, since at least April 13, 2020, about SCWorx’s agreement to sell COVID-19 tests, and (2) SCWorx’s current report on Form 8-K filed on April 16, 2020, concerning SCWorx’s agreement to sell COVID-19 tests. SCWorx is a Delaware corporation with its principal offices in New York, New York. SCWorx’s common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol “WORX.” The order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission cautions broker-dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, they should immediately contact Kevin Guerrero, Assistant Director, at (202) 551-4401. The Commission appreciates the assistance of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).
